

WEED REUNION VENDOR PROCEDURES and APPLICATION

The Weed Reunion Board of Presidents believe that the Reunion should be kept affordable for everyone, thus, the WRBP has used Weed Reunion fundraisers as a means to an end; keeping the cost down and affordable.

The Weed Reunion Board of Presidents (WRBP) reserves the right to limit the number of vendors at each reunion.

The Weed Reunion Board of Presidents (WRBP) has determined that no alcohol will be sold or provided by the Weed Reunion.

The Weed Reunion Board of Presidents (WRBP) reserves the right to restrict the sale of any trademarked item listed below:

TRADEMARKED ITEM LIST:

- Weed Reunion Caps
- Weed Reunion Videos
- Weed Reunion T-Shirts*
- Weed Reunion Photo Album
- Weed Reunion Directory
- Weed Reunion Paraphernalia (any object bearing the Weed Reunion NAME)

The Weed Reunion Board of Presidents has the expectation that a vendor will set-up in the designated area; clean-up after each closure; insure (to the degree possible) that the rights of participants of the Weed Reunion are not infringed on by the selling of the products listed on the vendor application.

The Weed Reunion Board of Presidents has established a $125.00 vendor fee for the 2012 Weed Reunion. This fee provides the vendor with permission to be on the premises and to sell items that are not trademarked by the Weed Reunion Committee. All set up materials and supplies will need to be furnished by the vendor. The Weed Reunion Committee takes NO responsibility for any loss on the part of the vendor.

The vendor application and vendor fees are due by July 1, 2012 to Almeta Perry. A receipt will be issued at the Reunion Registration table.

FIRST RETURNED, FIRST REGISTERED. If two applications are received from two or more vendors requesting to sell a like item, the determination of which vendor will be granted the permission to sell will be determined by the postal date and time stamped. If the issue can not be resolved with the postal stamp, then a drawing will take place and the vendor name drawn will be the vendor issued a permit to operate on the premises.)
